

HOLBEIN New Products

Holbein x Rebecca Green Rebecca Green's 12 Color Set Collection

A collaboration set between the globally renowned American illustrator and author, Rebecca Green, and Holbein. The package features newly created artwork. This collection set includes 12 colors used in the artwork. The set, which was released as a limited edition in 2021 and sold out instantly, is being re-released in response to numerous and continuous requests from around the world.

| | |
|--|-------------------|
| Code | 087 700 |
| Ref.No. | XD701 |
| Unit | 1 (36/case) |
| Barcode | 4900669 877004 |
| Package size | 265 x 102 x 25 mm |
| Package weight | 470 g |
|  Vermilion Emerald Green Smalt Blue Burnt Sienna  Coral Red Sap Green Ash Yellow Sepia  Mustard Pale Aqua Ash Blue Gold | |

Photo by Julia Ross

Rebecca Green

Rebecca Green is an American illustrator and author. Her debut picture book, How To Make Friends With A Ghost was published in 2017 and has been translated into more than six languages. Illustrated titles include Kafka and the Doll, Madame Saqui, and Becoming A Good Creature. She works primarily in acrylic gouache, colored pencil, ink, and cut paper. Her clients include Penguin Random House, Houghton Mifflin Harcourt, Viking Press, and Amnesty International. She's exhibited in galleries across the USA in New York, Denver, Los Angeles and Nashville, as well as in Osaka, Japan.

The Feast of the Clover Moon,

The illustration for this box set, "The Feast of the Clover Moon," was inspired by the artist's experience in Japan, having recently lived in Osaka with her husband. The painting expresses her reverence for celebration, beautiful desserts, the Autumn moon, and white clover, all of which Green has treasured in Japan as well as in her home state of Michigan.